

DATA PROTECTION CLAUSE MOBILITY TALKS

In accordance with the applicable data protection regulation, the participants get informed that their personal contact data, as well as any personal data provided during the event, will be processed by EIT KIC URBAN MOBILITY, S.L. (hereinafter “EIT KIC UM”) with registered office in Ca l’Atelier - Pere IV, 362, 08019, Barcelona, Spain, in order to manage the participation in the event, to contact the participants if necessary and, where appropriate, for the sending of commercial communications.

The legal basis for the processing is no other but the consent given by each participant. No data transfers or communications are intended to be done by the controller, except to services providers involved in the event management, EIT KIC UM group and otherwise provided by law. Personal data will be kept only for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection and processing including handling of later legal complaints. When the sending of commercial communications has been requested, personal data will be processed as long as the given consent is not withdrawn.

With regard to the processing, the data subjects may exercise their right of access, rights to rectification, erasure, object, data portability, restriction of processing, not to be subject to automated individual decision-making, and any other right recognised by the applicable regulation from time to time, by writing to EIT KIC UM through the following e-mail address info@eiturbanmobility.eu.

Where appropriate, and if any of the participants consider it necessary, they also have the right to file a claim in relation with the use of their personal to the competent supervisory authority whose details are available here.

As a participant of the Mobility Talks event, I expressly declare that I have read, understood and accepted the data protection information provided by EIT KIC UM and, in the same way, I expressly consent to the processing of my personal data for the purposes described.
